A Message from Mrs. Clisham –

Our school has won a Certificate of Merit for the garden area in the Best Kept Communities Competition. Mrs Hill and Owen attended a presentation last Friday evening and collected a plaque and £20 Tesco voucher. We will be putting this towards items for the Gardening Club.

Well done to the following pupils who have had their work on the ‘best work’ board this week. They are – Jemma D, Steffan H, Owen P, Charlie R, Sophie M, Hattie W, Dex B, Holly E-P, Daisy R, and Spencer W.

The winning house this week is – YR WYDDFA.

Early Entitlement Nursery

We now have the forms available for any child who will be 3 years old between 1st September and 3rd January to join our Early Entitlement Nursery in January. Children whose birthday falls any time between 4th January and 24th April can join us after Easter. Please contact the school office for a registration form as soon as possible.

School Gates

If the gate is locked at drop off/pick up time please ring the door bell and a member of staff will come and open it. Thank you.

Harvest Festival

Our Harvest celebration will take place at St Michael’s Church on Friday 30th September at 9.15am. We will be accepting donations on behalf of the Flintshire Food Bank. Please see attached leaflet for an idea of what to donate and bring them in during the week 26th to 30th September.

High School Open Days

For children who will be transferring to High School in September 2017, there is an opportunity to attend a tour of the schools on the following dates. Applications to express a preference for your preferred school are to be made on-line at flintshire.gov.uk/school admissions. Please ensure that you receive a reference number when the application is admitted. We are informed that pupils currently in year 5 are also welcome to attend the open days. Closing date for receipt of forms is the 4th November.
